

Emily Hay wins past week's only action in Spring Haven Farm Ladies Driving Series

By Bill Peters, Committee Member for the Spring Haven Farm Ladies Driving Series

The Seneca County Fair at Tiffin, Ohio hosted the only action in the Spring Haven Farm Ladies Driving Series this past week. The ladies went to the post in Race Nine on Monday's (July 22) card. When all the smoke had cleared, Emily Hay found herself in the winner's circle with the ten-year-old gelding Mr I Am (Western Spirit-Swift Passion). Thomas Phillips owns Mr I Am with Tricia Shepard performing the training duties. The winning time was 2:01.2.

Jazmin Arnold continues to lead the Series in points with 318. Emily Hay's win at Tiffin moved her into second place with 230 points. Alesha Binkley holds down the third spot with 216 points.

Action in the Spring Haven Farm Ladies Driving Series continues this Wednesday (July 31) with racing at both the Auglaize County Fair at Wapakoneta and the Greene County Fair at Xenia. Post time is 6:30 p.m. at both sites.
